

CHILDREN'S WEEK OCTOBER 14 TO 16

CONTINENT-WIDE CAMPAIGN TO EMPHASIZE THE NEED OF RE- LIGIOUS EDUCATION OF THE YOUTH

The need of religious education for children is being emphasized during the week of October 14 to October 20 by a continent wide campaign in which the churches of Putnam county are taking active part.

As a part of the children's week program in this county, a mass meeting is being arranged by the Putnam county Sunday School association. The meeting will be held Sunday, October 14 at 2:30 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

Prof. William Blanchard will give the address and the High School orchestra will play during the meeting.

Prior to the meeting the children and their parents will form in parade at the Court House in Greencastle at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and will pass around the square and to the High School building.

EXTENSION CONFERENCE AT PURDUE NEXT WEEK

LAFAYETTE, Ind. Oct. 6-- Everything is in readiness for the opening of the 29th annual conference of agriculture extension workers at Purdue University Monday, Oct. 8. The sessions will continue through next Friday, merging the last two days into a Farm Home conference. County agriculture agents, farmers' institute speakers, extension specialists working out from Purdue and others identified with extension work are expected to attend, about 200 in all. Pertinent farm and home topics will be discussed by state and national leaders.

The Farm and Home conference is a new feature and it is hoped to work out a definite program for the improvement of the Indiana farm homes. Director G. I. Christie of the Experiment Station will sound the keynote of the conference in the opening address Monday afternoon. Dean J. H. Skinner will speak that night on Agriculture Leadership and what it can do in various communities over the state.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be given over to an intensive short course for those here at the conference, the latter day being devoted largely to discussions on marketing of farm products, with officials of the Indiana and American Farm Bureau as the speakers.

The next two days will be devoted to a discussion of the problems of Indiana Farm Home with speakers of wide repute scheduled for addresses. These speakers include such men as C. J. Galpin of the Department of Agriculture; Dr. Eben Mumford of Michigan Agriculture College; President E. C. Elliott of Purdue; and widely known women workers, including Dr. Louise Stanley, in charge of the home economics division of the Department of Agriculture; Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith of Lafayette, dean of women agriculture extension workers in Indiana; Mrs. Charles W. Sewell, Otterbein; Miss Grace Fry-singer from Washington, D. C. and several organizations of the state will co-operate with the University in formulating a Farm Home program, the list including the Indiana Farm Bureau, Federation of Women's Clubs, Parent Teachers' Association, Indiana Home Economics' Association, State Board of Health, State Department of Public Instruction, Home economics' section of the W. C. T. and the United States Department of Agriculture.

These various organizations have a large membership over the state and the force of all of them will be listed in any state-wide program adopted.

The Vocational Class in Manual Training, under Prof. B. A. Knight, of the High School, is getting some practical outside building experience. The Class under the direction of Prof. Knight have designed, and are now engaged in building a garage at the home of O. W. Obenchain, West Walnut Street.

R. P. MULLINS HAS ISSUED NEW RECEIPT

R. P. Mullins, Greencastle druggist, with out fear of prohibition Enforcement Officers, has issued a new receipt for home made liquor, which is proving highly popular.

The new receipt:

"Chase wild bullfrogs for three miles and gather up the hops. To them add ten gallons of tan bark, half a pint of shellac and one bar of home-made soap.

"Boil thirty-six hours, then strain through an I. W. W. sock to keep it from working. Add one grasshopper to each pint to give it a kick. Pour a little into the kitchen sink. If it takes the enamel off it is ready for bottling."

INNOCENT MEN TO SUFFER THE DAMAGE DONE IN RAID ON STILL

HOLDER OF MORTGAGE ON FLOYD TOWNSHIP FARM NOW OWNED BY F. S. SNEDEGAR OF GREENWOOD, MUST BEAR LOSS FROM DAMAGE DONE TO RESIDENCE BY RAIDING OF- FICERS

Damage of several hundred dollars done the farm residence property on the F. S. Snedegar farm in Floyd township by a Sheriff's posse which recently found a still in the house on the farm, must be borne by those who hold mortgage on the farm.

It will be remembered that members of the raiding party cut holes in the floors, tore out a stairway, shot through the house and done other damage to the property, so it is said, was in order to get out the still without damaging it.

Although the officers made arrests following the raid on the still, there have been no convictions and probably will not be, as the officers, it is believed, failed to secure evidence sufficient to convict any of the men arrested.

There is no doubt, however, as to the damage to the property.

Developments have shown that, in reality, the property does not belong to Snedegar. He purchased the farm, giving a mortgage on the farm to secure payment.

The farm now will not sell for a sufficient sum to pay the mortgages, it is said and so the mortgage holders, and not Snedegar will suffer the loss to the property.

STEEL WORKERS UNION CALLS HALT ON WORK OF INSTALLING VAULT DOOR AT CENTRAL BANK

After being halted for a day and a half by an order from the United Steel workers of America, which organization objected to the use of non-union men in the work of moving and setting the huge vault door now being installed at the Central National bank, work was resumed Thursday morning.

The work of moving and installing the vault door is in charge of a man representing the Mosler Safe Co., which built the door and which, under its contract, is installing the door.

Non-Union labor was used by the Mosler Safe Co. superintendent in moving the vault door. When the Union officials in Indianapolis learned of this they immediately ordered him to stop work until union steel workers could be sent to Greencastle to assist in the work. Two men arrived Thursday morning and the work started.

Moving the large vault door-- it weighs 18 tons --from a truck into the building is a big job. The men in charge of the work, however, are so efficient in that line of work that they make the job look absolutely easy.

"SERVICE-PROGRESS SPECIAL" TOURING INDIANA AND ILLINOIS

This is the big New York Central Lines' railroad museum train which is coming here. It is hauled by "Engine 8000," the latest type of Mikado freight engine --for its weight the most powerful in the world. "Engine 9000," the last word in freight locomotives, with the historic world's record flyer "Engine 999" and the venerable De Witt-Clinton train of 1831, which also are part of the Special, shows New York Central Lines' engine development from first to last.

The Indiana-Illinois tour of this train, which is known as the "Service-Progress Special," consists of one hundred and fifteen stops, including that to be made here. The train has just completed a highly successful tour of Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, where thousands of persons have passed through its coaches.

Railroad progress of nearly 100 years is shown by the equipment and priceless exhibits of this huge train, which consists of three engines and eight cars. The relation of the railroad to agriculture and industry as well as the cost of government are fully demonstrated by its numerous exhibits.

Among the features of the train are the famous hand-carved Warther Working Engine models portraying the development of the steam engine. Moving pictures shown at evening stops present all phases of railroad operation, including handling of farm products from the farm to the consumer.

Operation of the "Service-Progress Special" by the New York Central Lines is at the request of the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange.

ASKS $100,000 FOR ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS OF HER CHILD

MRS. ETHEL MONTGOMERY CRUM, FORMERLY OF GREEN- CASTLE, IS PLAINTIFF IN SUIT AGAINST WEALTHY POSEY COUNTY RESIDENTS

EVANSVILLE, Ind., October 9.-- Trial of the case of Mrs. Ethel Montgomery Crum, of Indianapolis, asking for $100,000 damages from John E. and Pauline Montgomery and family, wealthy Posey county residents, involving the alleged alienation of the affections of Mrs. Crum's daughter, Mary Eloise Montgomery, age seventeen began in the Vanderburg probate court today with James T. Cutler presiding as special judge. The defendants filed a general denial of the charges brought in Mrs. Crum's complaint.

Attorneys for Mrs. Crum filed a motion asking Estella Montgomery, one of the defendants to produce certain correspondence which took place between Mrs. Crum and her daughter correspondence which took place between Mrs. Crum and Miss Montgomery from December 1921 to June, 1923, involving Mary Eloise. Judge Cutler sustained the plaintiff's motion and Miss Montgomery was ordered to produce the letters.

A jury to hear the case was selected today, witnesses were subpoenaed and depositions will be read tomorrow. The jury is made up of four women and eight men. The women jurors are married.

Mrs. Ethel Montgomery Crum's former was Miss Ethel Thomas of Greencastle. The damage suit is the culmination of a legal battle between Wilbur Montgomery, former husband of Mrs. Crum, and Mr. Crum over their daughter. Following their divorce the child was given to Mrs. Crum. The father kidnapped the child for which he was arrested and sentenced to serve a term in prison. Before his arrest on the kidnapping charge, the father had placed the child in a school, and he refused to divulge the whereabouts of the child to the officers. Finally he escaped from prison. Later the child was found and returned to the mother. Recently the daughter, now a young lady, deserted the mother and went to its grandparents. The mother alleges in the suit that the action of the daughter in deserting her is the result of the actions of the grandparents and she is suing them for $100,000 damages.

MONDAY IS A BIG PAY-DAY FOR UNCLE SAM

Over $150,000,000 in interest on Liberty and Treasury bonds will be paid out by the government on October 15th. Holders of Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds are urged to clip their interest coupons due on this date and present them for payment at any bank or post office. The U. S. Treasury now issues "Baby Bonds" which sell for $20.50 each. Thousands of Americans have acquired the habit of buying one or more every month and have thus established a "reserve fund" the safety and growth of which is guaranteed by Uncle Sam. All postmasters have been authorized to accept Liberty Bond interest coupons, which are due as part payment toward the purchase price of a new "Baby Bond." Holders of Government securities in this way can make their interest earn more interest.

Railroad Dividends

-and Taxes

LAST year the Pennsylvania Railroad System paid out more in taxes than in dividends. Out of every dollar received 4.38 cents was paid in taxes, while only 4.34 cents was paid in dividends.

In the year 1913 the total dividends paid to railroad stockholders were about two and a half times the total railroad taxes. In the year 1922 the taxes paid were 11 per cent greater than the aggregate dividends.

The cash dividends paid in 1913 totaled $322,300,406 and the taxes $127,725,809. Dividends in 1922 totaled $271,576,000 and taxes $301,003,227. In the ten-year period, 1913 to 1922, therefore, taxes increased about 135 per cent while dividends decreased about 16 per cent.

The increase in taxes is due in part to an increase of approximately five billion dollars in the property investment of the railroads between 1913 and 1922. But, while the total investment and value of railroad property devoted to public service during this period has increased about 33 per cent, and taxes upon the property 135 per cent, the total compensation to railway stockholders has decreased 16 per cent.

Industrial Greencastle

The Greencastle Canning Co.

In our brief description of other Greencastle Industries we have been lavish in the use of the words "Tons" and "Carloads". In exploiting the local production of cement, crushed stone, sheet zinc these words are necessary. But to the casual reader it would seem that these larger units of measure are not to be applied to food products, and the public may be agreeably surprised to know that the words "Tons" and "Carload" can be applied to the consumption of raw materials and finished products of the Greencastle Canning Co.

In the current year more than Fifteen Hundred tons of high grade farm products will be delivered to the modern factory of the company, located on the Pennsylvania Railroad, there to be canned and conserved as the food of the nation. Green beans, Tomatoes, Pumpkins by the wagonload are being delivered to this busy place and carloads of canned vegetables are going out to feed the world. Last year the company used Eleven hundred and forty tons of tomatoes; this year, although unseasonable, the yield will be nearly as large. The company will increase its production of canned Pumpkin so that the total tonnage for the year will show a material gain over former production.

In its cleanly, modern plant, the company employs forty women and twenty men during the season. It is the purpose of the organization to lengthen their present limited season by canning other food products, as there is a growing demand, because of their excellence for the Greencastle Canning company's goods.

This bank urges the extensive use of the wholesome products of the Greencastle Canning Company and compliments the community on having in its midst this dual beneficiary that takes the products of our farms and converts and conserves them for all-seasons uses. Founded 1863.

Money Won't Buy Loyalty

Loyalty, vigilance, alertness and service are four elements which every business man would like to believe are inherent in all of his employees.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has abundant evidence to show that such qualities are common to all but a negligible portion of its employees.

This evidence comes in the form of unsolicited letters. As an example we quote one received from Mr. Wm. E. Small, of Fargo, North Dakota, written under date of September 11, in which he says:

"I wish to acknowledge the courtesy of your station attendant, Mr. Grassell, of Grafton. I am used to receiving the best treatment at the hands of your Fargo Service Station men but this young man has the idea of service and accommodation raised to the nth power.

"The soil around Grafton is about the slimiest, greasiest, blackest, and most all-round detestable stuff in the world to get smeared up with but, notwithstanding this and notwithstanding the fact that I was a total stranger to him and not one of his regular customers, when I drove into your station at Grafton after an unusually heavy down-pour of rain last week your agent at that point insisted that I remain in my car while he attached the chains over wheels and under fenders literally plastered with Grafton gumbo. When informed that I intended driving through to Grand Forks he not only put on the chains but wired them on and made an expert job of it. When he had finished he was covered from head to foot with mud and slime but refused absolutely to accept a cent for the service rendered.

"I know of no other way to square accounts than to report the matter to headquarters. As I drove down to Grand Forks through a sea of mud but clean and comfortable I swore eternal gratitude to my friends, the Standard Oil Company, for all time to come. You are giving us real service up here in the Red River Valley and I, for one, appreciate it."

It was loyalty to the Company's ideals of service that caused this service station attendant to go far out of his way to render Mr. Small an extraordinary degree of service in an extraordinary situation—and he made another friend for the Company.

Such loyalty cannot be bought—it must be earned.

Skillful management is one thing—shrewd buying is another—scientific manufacturing processes constitute still another—but the loyalty—the spirit—the morale—of the 27,000 employees is what has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) great—in size—in achievement—and in service—to the thirty million people of the Middle West.
